

THE GOLDEN
HINDE

Win a Free tour on The Golden Hinde for your class!

As part of our 50th anniversary celebrations, The Golden Hinde is running a competition for schools. We are inviting secondary schools to write a poem, using the theme of sailing or the sea, using the template attached. The winning entry will receive a free one-hour tour for their class, valid until March 28th 2024. Select your preferred tour from our catalogue of one-hour educational workshops on our website.

The poems will be judged by The Golden Hinde's own navigator, Jilly Francis. Our judge is looking for poems that demonstrate:

- Creativity
- Originality
- The history of The Golden Hinde

The competition will open on the 17th of April 2023. The deadline to submit your entries is the 22nd of May 2023. We will contact the winning school by the 31st of May 2023.

We will only accept one entry from each student but every member of the class can enter. Make sure to write on the back of every entry the name of the student, class and school.

Please submit one of the following 3 ways:

- Drop the entries off at our ticket booth during opening hours (on our website)
- Post the letters to us:

Terms and Conditions

1. Please note that by entering this competition you are agreeing that, if you win, we have permission to use the name of your school, and winning participant, for the purposes of announcing the winner and/or displaying the artwork in our museum as part of our 50th celebration, as well as any related publicity, without additional payment or permission.
2. This promotion is open to all primary and secondary schools in the UK. Entries are free to any primary and secondary schools based in the UK. If your school is not based in the UK, you may not enter this competition.
3. It is the direct responsibility of the schools and teachers to ensure that consent has been obtained by the parents/guardians of the students who are participating, and the school is responsible for ensuring that all work is original.
4. Competition entries will be judged by Golden Hinde representatives. This decision will be final and binding.
5. The winning entry will be awarded a school tour for their class of up to 30 students and 4 adults. Additional children or adults will be charged the usual rate of £7 per person. This tour must be claimed by 28th March 2024.
6. The prize is non-transferable and no alternative prize will be offered.
7. To obtain details of the prize winner after the closing date, please email edu@goldenhinde.co.uk. Information about the winning entry will be published on The Golden Hinde's website (www.goldenhinde.co.uk). The winning entry will be announced in June 2023.
8. It is understood that photographs of the winning tour will be taken for marketing and publicity purposes. The winning entrant and their class will be contacted regarding photography permissions before the tour takes place.
9. It is anticipated that photographs of the art work will be taken and The Golden Hinde will retain the rights to distribute the image(s) on our social media pages and website. You grant to us an exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free, perpetual and irrevocable license to copy, store, edit, distribute, transmit and publish your competition entries.
10. The Golden Hinde is unable to return any entries submitted as part of the competition to the entrant's school. You grant to us the license to obtain and keep competition entries on these grounds.
11. Any personal information you give us will be used solely for this competition and will not be passed on to any other parties without your written agreement.
